Personal Observation

In General, and a Case in Point

WE have extra good things to talk about. We delight in detail. We are just as fond of the phrase "Reduced from" as we have found you to be. But often the very best things we present do not admit of elaborate detail, because there's too much of it. In such cases we must rely upon your own observation of the goods, and your own knowledge of the usual and accepted prices.

As a case strongly in point we instance this

Selling of China and Glass

We have collected, at a highly advantageous time, a most wonderful showing of china of all kinds, sorts, characters and descriptions, from cheapest to costliest. We have gathered at exactly the right time (from an economical stand-point) an equally wonderful showing in crystal cut glass. But the most wonderful thing of all is the list of prices. It would make glorious advertising, but it's too long. We must leave the whole matter to you. You know china and glass ware regular prices. Come in and learn some of these irregu-

The main aisle, Broadway, and a large portion of the Basement are devoted to the selling.

MADRAS tie weather is still with us, and Furnishings bids fair to remain with us for some time. Consequently you will be glad to know that the very best ties that are made from the very best madrases that are woven can be bought at 25c. for six. That is just three times as many ties for a quarter as you could get a month ago, and the ties are the same quality, or Madras shirts, too, worth more today than any day this year, if to-day fulfils the promise of yesterday. Worth more, but costing less. Fifty Cents each. You can pick dollar and even dollar-and-a-half kinds from the lot, if you are early enough,-say before eleven.

A fifty-cent suspender for 25c. Interesting at any time, but rather more interesting than usual just now. Every conceivable color and combination of colors is here that was ever conceived for suspender use. Men's Furnishing Store, Ninth street.

THREE lots Closing Out Men's Serge Suits with interesting new prices. Not all sizes in each lot, but every size in the several sorts. They're of good quality blue and black serges, perfect-fitting and made in an excellent

The $12 and $13 kinds are now $8.50. The $15, $16.50 and $18 kinds are now $12. The $20 and $23 kinds are now $15. Second floor, Fourth avenue

School Suits THIS is a good chance, cloths that are serviceable, strong and handsome, at $3.50 and $5. The first have been priced at $4.50, $7.50 suits.

Knee trousers of all-wool goods, medium weight, 65c. and 75c. a pair. Most stores ask a dollar for the same goods,-some, even more. Second floor, Fourth avenue

We have other sorts-higher priced-but still cheaper than same qualities in most other stores. You may be interested in the 30c. and 60c. sorts.

A STYLISH looking A New glove and an excel-lent quality at a little price. This new Suede Glove One Dollar suede glove is for Fall wear, fourbutton, with two-toned embroidery; in various tans, mode, brown and black. $1 a pair.

THE ordinary retail Women's price is $3 for the Tan Shoes women's laced tancolored shoes we show you at $1.75. A special lot, and one of the reasons why this 18-months-old shoe business of ours is already a giant.

Ninety cents and a dollar a pair for dark tan kidskin shoes for girls and small boys. They have tips and heavy oak leather soles. Two more reasons.

ARTIFICIAL LIGHT AND COLORS.

The effect of artificial light on colors is sometimes overlooked when choosing a decorative scheme. The fact is, gas and electric lights will change colors wonderfully. Yellow is paled and some-green; such colors as violet, pink or purple are entirely altered. To guard against disagreeable effects, the colors used should be so selected and juxtaposed that the finished work will look as well by night as by day, even though the whole will be some-ing the yellow light, become what changed in tone. Yes, it takes a great deal more know how" than most people imagine to think out a successful scheme.
